Sir:

DECLARATION OF FACTS UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(b)
BY LAURA RIBERO

I, Laura Ribero, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am employed in the Industrial Property Rights Function, Telecom Italia S.p.A., Turin Office, Via G. Reiss Romoli 274, Torino, Italy. One of my responsibilities is to assist in the processing of Telecom Italia patent applications to be filed in the United States and Canada.

2. On or about September 13, 2005, I sent by priority mail, a copy of the U.S. Declaration and Power of Attorney, the Assignment (for the United States) and the Canadian Assignment already signed by some of the inventors, to Enrico Giovanardi who terminated employment with Telecom Italia on January 31, 2004, at the following address:

Enrico Giovanardi
Via Carducci 54
41041 Formigone (Modena)
Italy

I did not make a copy of the documents for my files, and accordingly, a copy of the documents which I sent to Mr. Giovanardi is not available since Mr. Giovanardi never returned the documents. A copy of the post-it note which I made on September 13, 2005, is attached hereto and identified as EXHIBIT 1, and reads "Originals to Giovanardi 13/9/05". (see translation of EXHIBIT 1).

3. I conducted e-mail correspondence with Mr. Giovanardi (addressed to a private e-mail address) at enrico.giovanardi@libero.it regarding the documents, and in particular, asking him to sign the documents.

The first e-mail from me to Mr. Giovanardi (identified as EXHIBIT 2) dated September 30, 2005, asked him if he had received the documents to be signed. (see translation of EXHIBIT 2).

The second e-mail from me to Mr. Giovanardi (identified as Exhibit 3) dated October 14, 2005, pointed out that the deadline (for the signed documents) was getting close. (see translation of EXHIBIT 3).

The third e-mail is from Mr. Giovanardi to me (identified as EXHIBIT 4) dated October 15, 2005, stated that he was overseas and that he would contact me via e-mail when he came back to Italy. (see translation of EXHIBIT 4).

The fourth e-mail is from me to Mr. Giovanardi (identified as EXHIBIT 5) dated November 22, 2005, wherein I asked him if he was still traveling and to let me know when he would return to Italy. (see translation of EXHIBIT 5).

The fifth e-mail is from me to Mr. Giovanardi (identified as EXHIBIT 6) dated December 20, 2005, asking him again when he would be able to sign the documents which I sent to him in September. (see translation of EXHIBIT 6).

4. In mid-January 2006, I made a telephone call to Mr. Giovanardi at which time he told me that he would not sign the documents. I do not have a written record of the telephone call.

5. On or about August 28, 2006, I sent the foregoing e-mails identified in EXHIBITS 2-6 to Sabrina Bedini of the Industrial Property Rights Function of Telecom Italia Group via e-mail as evidenced by the e-mail address at the top of each of EXHIBITS 2-6. In the e-mail to Sabrina Bedini dated August 28, 2006, wherein I forwarded my e-mail of December 20, 2005, (see translation of EXHIBIT 6), I indicated that Mr. Giovanardi had told me via telephone that he would not sign the documents (which included the Declaration and Power of Attorney, the United States Assignment and the Canadian Assignment).

6. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that the willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under

PATENT
Customer No. 22,852
Serial No.: 10/538,192
Attorney Docket No.: 05788.0365

Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

Signed:
Laura Ribero

Hi Enrico,

The colleague in Milan has asked me what stage the documents are at that I sent you: the filing deadline is getting close.

Would you pls. let me know?

Thanks

Laura.
